Form and function blend wonderfully together in this traditional style home. Inside, columns add definition to the open dining room, while the living room with a cathedral ceiling is just one roomy feature of this great family home. The huge bonus room over the garage adds flexibility as it could make for a great play room, office, or an extra kids bed room. The spacious garage has plenty of space for several vehicles and/or room for extra storage. The large covered patio is a great place to and entertain outdoors.
